

Worship Pastor

Richwoods Christian Church is seeking a Worship Pastor to join our team and provide overall leadership to our worship, production and creative arts ministry. We are looking for someone who loves the Church and is passionate about creating a vibrant worship culture where people can encounter Jesus, experience His transforming power, and live on mission.

Our ideal candidate would lead the worship, production, and creative arts departments of Richwoods Christian Church by:

- Having high capacity, passion, and love for God's church and the mission He is calling Richwoods towards.
- Developing engaging weekly worship services in partnership with the Lead Pastor.
- Growing, investing, and shepherding a vibrant volunteer culture within the worship, production, and creative arts teams.
- Creating stage sets, song selections and service flow that amplifies the sermon and leads people to engage with Jesus.
- Being a staff member that lives Richwoods' mission, values, and vision as well as encouraging other staff to do the same.
- Having experience building volunteer teams, leading worship services, and working at a church of 500+ average weekly attendance.
- Embracing and being an active disciple-maker who helps others find Jesus, be discipled, and make disciples themselves.
- Desiring to grow as a leader, worship pastor, and follower of Jesus by learning from other pastors and churches.
- Having a passion for the community outside the walls of our church.
- Being a gifted musician, strong vocal/musical talent, and able to recognize gifting in others.
- Caring deeply for the people of Richwoods, pastoring them "off stage," and engaging in the life of the church beyond just worship.
